MEETING OF PREACHERS

The Preachers Conference held an interesting meeting Monday afternoon during which the following resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, Rev W. W. Baxter is a charter member of the Preachers' Conference of Cookeville, serving faithful and well as secretary-treasurer; and

Whereas, much of the success of this conference is due to his wise council and cheerful service; and

For as much, as he has been called to labor in another field for our Lord and Master in the interest of Sunday schools and the young people generally; therefore be it

Resolved, that this conference and Cookeville and the country at large shall greatly miss him and his cultured, Christian family as well.

Resolved, that we shall earnestly pray God's blessing to be upon him and 'is in their new field of Christian endeavor for the great Head of the church, and that signal success may crown all his efforts and when all of life is over he may be administered an abundant entrance into the Father's home on high.

J. F. Tinnon

A. J. Colie

In behalf of the Conference.

MISSIONARY STUDY CLASS

We are made to believe that the women in Cookeville are anxious for "The Home to be the Center of a Nation's Life," when we see how many came to the study class Tuesday, Dec. 15, through such bitter cold weather, to discuss "The Child at Home."

The aim of our study today was to show that homes of the world need nothing so much as the blessing and presence of the Christ, the real creator of an ideal home. We resolved that the greatest gift Christianity has to offer a non-Christian land is the introduction of the power of the Christ-life into the homes of the land.

Our next lesson will be "The Child at Play and at Work." We will discuss the following topics: I. The value of play. II. As children play around the world. III. Missionary dolls. IV. Problems of child labor. V. Open discussion, playground movements and

If you will put your money in our bank every week, or every month, you will have plenty in time of need or for that chance to go into business for yourself, and you will be merry too. Give yourself a bank account for a Christmas present.

CAPE COTTAGE, MAINE

Hello to all Tennessee friends. How are all standing the cold. Believe me it is some cold up here in Maine. Say, you Tennessee boys, why don't you join the army and see the world. I sure do like it and if it wasn't for my girl in Tennessee I would spend the rest of my days with Un-o Sam. I have been in the hospital for some time and I would like to hear from all you Tennessee boys and girls. Drop me a Christmas card or letter. I will answer the ones that I get with the greatest of pleasure.

Hope you all have a good time Christmas and think of A. W. H. the soldier from old Tennessee.

MUNDAY, TEXAS

Editor Herald: I will just step in this cool evening to bring 25c for your paper again, as I have missed a few copies.

We have fine crops out here this year but low prices.

I will ring off by asking for a card party New Years, as that is my fiftieth birthday. Would be glad to get that many cards.

Mrs. Olive Bartlett,
Munday, Texas, R. 1.

Begin the new year by reading the Herald. 12 months for 25c.
